

What is Solar Compass?

Solar Compass is the application created to give organization-time management assistance. Through use of our application you will be able to follow and post upcoming deadlines as well as follow up on past projects. All from one location available to you wherever you have access to the internet.

Solar Compass brings your projects to your team through fast project share requests and on the moment comments. With simple drag and drop organization projects can be organized within your schedule and tasks within your projects.

Our Audience

We know any business worth there salt would benifit from Solar Compass. More specifcly where deadlines need to be met on the day to day as well as the foreseeable future. The everyday business man or women between the ages of 23 - 45 would be pour primary users.

Solar Compass